

2008-2009 Department of History Speaker Series

340 Morrill Hall, Department of History
3:00pm-5:00pm

9/25/2008* Sam Quinones, Los Angeles Times "Truer Tales of Why Mexicans Migrate"	1/22/2009* Devon Peña University of Washington "Environmental and Agricultural Farming by Mixtec Natives in the United States"
10/9/2008 Maria Bucur- Deckard Indiana University-Bloomington "Gendering Dissent under Communism: Of Bodies and Minds"	2/19/2009 Dirk Hoerder Arizona State University "Transnational, -regional, -cultural: Social History and Labor Migrants' Networks in the 19th and 20th Centuries"
10/23/2008 John Connelly University of California, Berkeley "Catholic Racism: The German Syndrome"	4/2/2009 Bernhard Rieger University College London "A Global History of the Volkswagen Beetle"
11/6/2008 Luise White University of Florida "Racial Representation of the Worst Sort': The African Franchise and Decolonization in Central Africa"	4/16/2009 Irad Malkin Tel Aviv University "Mediterranean Networks and the Rise of Greek Civilization"
12/4/2008* Matthew Connelly Columbia University "Unnatural Selection: Population Control and the Struggle to Remake Humanity"

For Additional information

Dr. Jerry Garcia
garcia86@msu.edu

Dr. Sean Forner
saforner@msu.edu

*Talks on: 9/25, 12/4, and 1/22 will be held in Conference Rm. CIP-115 (International Center)